

V.V. Giri National Labour Institute

Noida

(An Autonomous Body established by Labour & Employment, Government of India)

V.V. Giri National Labour Institute is a premier and the only national level institute exclusively devoted to the study and training in labour and labour-related issues. Registered as an autonomous institute of the Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India in 1972, the National Labour Institute started functioning in 1974, and it was renamed as V.V. Giri National Labour Institute in honour of the late Shri V.V. Giri, former President of India, an indefatigable trade unionist and the doyen of labour studies in the country.

The Institute has a succinctly stated vision to be “A globally reputed institution and centre of excellence in labour research and training committed to enhancing the quality of work and work relations”. In line with this, the Institute’s mandate focuses on six major activities: (i) research, (ii) training and education, (iii) publications, (iv) library and information systems, (v) consultancy, and (vi) networking and collaborations.
